Joe Cucci, pitching for the Kott Smolar quintet, leads in the race for the men's individual season series honors with his 610&54-654 set, while Rancher's Corner's Connie Montgomery and her impressive 601&57-658 three game effort heads the list of female leading member, has a league leading member, has a towering 277&6-283 single claiming the top individual high game award of the season for the men. C. Taylor, representing the Balls-O-Fire, has a 241&34-275 pitch for the girls season solo high. AVALON BUILDERS Supply continues to widen its lead in the "B" Division, now enjoying a 6 1/2 game edge over second place Hamatures. Torrance Electronics ride in third, only one-half game out of second, followed by the South Bay Humane Society. Frontier Realty hurler, M. Belt, holds the men's individual season series high of 615&54-669 as D. Loveridge produced the female high with her 559&99-658 package. High game limelight was copied by C. Crawford, 257&21-278, going under the Frontier Realty banner, as L. Gilmore, rolling with the leading Avalon Builders Supply racked up the female high, a tremendous 233&36-269.

School Cook Demonstrates Pizzaburger

More than 400 parents and children turned out last week to see what Junior eats for lunch at Wood Elementary School and to find out why. Cafeteria workers cooked a special meal of pizzaburgers for the group. Afterward, Miss Sara Cina, school district cafeteria supervisor, explained what goes into making up the menus for the schools. She told the group that menus are planned scientifically. Each one contains a half-pint of whole milk, three-quarters cup of vegetable or fruit, at least one slice of whole grain or enriched bread, two teaspoons of butter or margarine, and two ounces of cooked lean meat, fish, poultry, or cheese or one egg or a half cup of cooked dried beans or four tablespoons of peanut butter.
